Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
ST. PAUL, Minn., May 10.—The Saints hammered Allemaing pretty freely all afternoon and stole bases whenever there was the slightest excuse for the attempt. Thirteen hits, eight stolen bases and six errors by Indianapolis resulted in fourteen runs, while the Hoosiers were able to come across but five times.

Check started out well in the second and put three men on bases on passes, with two out. Allemaing came up and got three balls and two strikes, but missed the third strike by a wide margin.

In the second McCreery dropped a fly in center that resulted in two runs, but redeemed himself at the bat by a home run over the center field fence, bringing in Hoosiers and stole bases on the strike.

In the fifth inning McCreery scored McGoon by leading back and forth base on first and second until the second baseman got in.

The Indians hit safe four times in the sixth and scored twice, but the Saints were unable to get any runs in the sixth or seventh. Carr's two errors each let a run in, while the remainder of the misplays were always costly.

Allemaing was pounded for five hits, one a double, in the eighth and by clever base stealing the Saints made them count for four runs. On the bases the Saints had already the better of the game, the Indianapolis team work being noticeable by its scarcity. Score:
